THE STORM IN CALIFORNIA.

Heavy and Continuous Rains—Streams Very High—Railway and Telegraphic Communication Interrupted—Two Men Drowned

EASTERN LINES DOWN

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

The Storm in San Francisco—Damage to Sewers, Etc.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 21

The storm in the city has done some damage in bursting sewers and washing away earth on steep hillsides. Early this morning a heavy stone retaining wall about 20 feet high in the rear of Robert Sherwood's lot on California street between Taylor and Jones, fell covering gardens in the rear of residences on Pine street smashing hot houses and out buildings and in one or two instances injuring the rear of dwellings. No one injured.

The Flood at Marysville

MARYSVILLE, April 21.—It ceased raining here at 9:30 A. M. The Yuba is at the 14 foot mark, and rising rapidly. It still lacks 20 inches of the high water of last year. The levees are in good condition and can stand a further rise of three feet without danger of overflow. A portion of the Bear river bridge is gone, this morning. The Sutter county levee is all right.

MARYSVILLE, April 21.—About 2 o'clock this afternoon, as Henry Scheussler, W. Cox and George A. Rodgers were proceeding in a small boat to the warehouse of a farmer situated on the bank of Feather river just below Yuba City, the boat ran afoul of a tree and broke in two throwing them into the river. Scheussler clinging to the tree was saved. Rogers and Cox were drowned.

The Storm in the Sierras.

DUTCH FLAT, April 21.—The storm continues unabated, raining continuously and heavily. Since last report the rain has extended as far up as Emigrant Gap. Streams and rivers are reported very much swollen. Snow disappearing rapidly. Several snow slides are reported between here and Summit, and the snow sheds are washed out in several places. Three Chinamen are reported carried away in snow slides. A land slide has occurred in the lava and clay formation just above Alta, carrying away and covering up about 300 feet of railroad track and a shed.

Interruption of Trains

OROVILLE, April 21.—Clear here, wind south; thermometer 56. It is still storming on the mountains. Communication between here and Marysville by rail is cut off by high water. At Honcut a small bridge is gone. No trains either way to-day.

Another Man Drowned

SAN ANDREAS, April 21.—C R Webb solicitor for the firm of Harrison, Dickenson & Co. of San Francisco, was this morning drowned while attempting to cross Murray creek, near this place, in a buggy.

High Water in the San Joaquin.

MERCED, April 21.—The San Joaquin river at Dickenson's ferry is within two feet of high water mark, and all streams, including the Chowchilla and Fresno rivers, and Mariposa and Bear creeks on the east side are overflowing and filling the low lands of the valley. Streams on the west side of the valley are also booming as far up as Firebaugh's ferry, and the probabilities are in favor of very high water; rain has ceased.

Land and Railroad Track Submerged.

ALAMEDA, April 21.—The levee at Brandall's slough broke this morning, giving vent to a large body of water from Alameda creek. Where it crosses the country road between Centerville and Alvarado it is five feet deep, and a large amount of grain land will be nearly a total loss. About a thousand acres are under water. The track of the South Pacific Coast railroad for nearly three miles commencing at Halls' is under water and some of the track is said to be washed away. A hand car with seven men started to cross but have not been heard from yet.

The Storm at Placerville

PLACERVILLE, April 21.—The rain storm for the last twelve hours has been the heaviest known for a long time. Hangtown creek has been away up. Morrill's bridge at Weber creek has been carried away. A portion of the Olympic Club hall has been carried away and some houses in town blown down.

At Oakdale.

OAKDALE, April 21.—It rained moderately till 5 A. M., when it commenced pouring like a cloud burst without abatement for six hours. All streams leading from the mountains will be the highest for the season.

At Martinez.

MARTINEZ, April 21.—The storm has been very severe here, flooding low lands and injuring many fine grain fields. Pacheco is badly flooded, some bridges carried away and communication interrupted.

At Folsom.

FOLSOM, April 21.—The American river was 24 feet 6 inches above low water mark at 7 P. M., and falling. There has been very little rain here since 11 A. M. and no signs of any to-night.

Grain Fields Injured and Railroad Track Washed Out

WHEATLAND, Cal., April 21.—The storm seems to be over for the present. Bear river still keeps rising. The levee on the south side of the river, owned by Keys & Brewer broke in two places, flooding a large area of grain. The railroad track is badly damaged. About a mile of embankment on the south side of the river has been washed away. It is reported that about 200 yards of track this side of Yuba station is washed out. The trains are all abandoned.

At Downieville.

DOWNIEVILLE, April 21.—Rain and snow are steadily falling accompanied with thunder and lightning with a good prospect of continuing all night. Snow slides are reported all over the mountains. Stage roads are still blocked, some bridges have been swept away, and the Yuba river has risen but little.

At Colusa.

COLUSA, April 21.—The river is within three inches of high water and rising, clear, wind southwest.

At Chico.

CHICO, April 21.—All the streams are full and carrying away many bridges and impeding travel. It is impossible to get to the river from Chico, but as the rain closed this morning the fall in water has been very rapid. More high water is expected. The most damage done to grain is on Butte creek.

In Nevada County.

NEVADA, April 21.—The storm continued with unabated fury until 3 P. M. to-day. Rainfall for last 24 hours, 6.20 inches; total for the season 57.52. Wind southeast. Appearances indicate more rain. The thermometer throughout varied only from 40° to 42°, which indicates snow on the mountains a few miles distant. Stagemen report the amount of snow in the upper part of the county as being greater than ever before known. Roads in the immediate vicinity of this city are almost impassable. All the principal bridges remain firm. The Yuba river is not unusually high as mountain storms have all been of snow.

Disastrous Flood at Pleasanton.

PLEASANTON, April 21.—Two inches of rain fell and snow in the mountains is melting. Streams are higher than ever known before. The creek has burst its banks just above the main street rushing down through the center of the town in torrents, taking with it fences and small buildings and everything that was loose. Some families were driven into the second stories of their buildings; the whole country below this place is one vast sea of water.

A Stockton Merchant Drowned.

STOCKTON, April 21.—A dispatch received this evening from Plattsburg announces the death by drowning, of C. J. Smith, of Stockton, of the firm of Smith & Raynor.

Assessment

SAN FRANCISCO, April 21.—Dudley levies an assessment of 25 cents.

Suicide of a Defaulter

LOS ANGELES, April 21.—S. R. Hoyle, defaulting tax collector from Georgia, whose case has been so prominently before the people of the two cities for the past month, took his case out of the supreme to a higher court last night by committing suicide in his cell in jail. By some means he had been furnished with a bull dog revolver, and about 11 o'clock after writing a letter to his counsel and one to his wife now in Alabama lay down in his bed and smoked a cigar without giving a hint or intimation of his intention. He suddenly turned over and shot himself

A PERILOUS TRIP

Thirty-six Hours in an Open Boat on the Northern Straits without Food—News from Ruby Creek

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

PORT TOWNSEND, April 21.—W. C. Garrett and another miner have just arrived here from Ruby creek, having made the trip down in three days. While trying to reach Dungeness light on Monday they were overtaken by an easterly wind which changed to southwesterly and then to the southeast, which latter drove them 15 miles outside of the light. Here the tide and wind being in opposite directions caused the seas to run high and they only escaped drowning by rigging a drag and constantly bailing the water out of the canoe. By daylight yesterday morning they had nearly perished having been without food and water and subject to constant labor for thirty six hours. They then espied two vessels coming up the straits which proved to be the ship Shirley and the barkentine Katie Flickinger. The Shirley being first to arrive within sight and hearing of the parties in the canoe, was repeatedly signaled by hoisting a flag of distress and waving of hat, but failed to take any notice of the signals, passing within a short distance of them. It seems that Capt. Raven of the barkentine Flickinger noticed the signs made and seeing the Shirley pass without rendering assistance he made signs to those in the canoe that he would come to their rescue and immediately came, stood in far enough to the windward so as to reach them on the next tack, and with every stitch of canvas set reached the men and took them on board where they were kindly treated in every way, for which Capt. Raven is deserving of the greatest credit. The men had given up all hopes of reaching land alive. Garrett reports the trip to Ruby Creek by Skagit river as attended with many difficulties and actual dangers to life and property. On the way down the river, at the second rapid below Goodall's landing, their shovel-nosed canoe with 7 occupants was swamped and about seven eighths of all their property, money, etc. was lost, one of the party nearly losing his life. The same day another party of seven in the same kind of a canoe handled by Indians, was capsized at the portage and all their property lost. He reports from three to ten feet of snow through the country and the rivers constantly rising. He brought back good specimens of gold dust taken from a placer claim just below the mouth of Ruby creek. He states it positively to be his opinion that no work can be done before August. Many miners who arrived by the Skagit route informed him that they would certainly return by Fort Hope. The diggings, in his opinion, are not near as extensive as reported.

THE FISHERMEN'S STRIKE.

THREATS OF VIOLENCE REPORTED

District Attorney Caples Goes to Astoria by Special Boat—Conference between the Strikers and Packers.

Reports were rife in this city yesterday to the effect that there was very serious trouble between the fishermen at Astoria who refused to work for less than 60 cents per salmon and some of the cannerymen at that place. These reports assumed exaggerated shapes and it was said that there had been violence and bloodshed.

From all that could be learned the following seem to be the facts in the case.

Yesterday morning Capt. Hiram Brown the well known steamer pilot received a telegram from Badollet & Co of Astoria to the following effect. That they had sent all their boats and men out Tuesday to fish—the men consenting to work for 60 cents per fish. As soon as it had become known that the men had agreed to commence work at that figure, several hundred of the strikers marched in a body to the cannery of Badollet & Co and by threats compelled the men to stop and bring in their boats and nets.

Capt Brown was also asked to call on Gov Thayer and state to his Excellency all the circumstances of the situation and to ask his advice in the matter.

On receipt of the dispatch Captain Brown called immediately on Gov Thayer and stated the case. Judge Bellinger and District Attorney Caples were called in for consultation, also several prominent attorneys of the city. After discussing the situation for some time it was concluded to send District Attorney Caples down to Astoria by a special boat who was to institute proceedings against the ring leaders of the mob movement.

As all the boats of the Oregon Railway and Navigation Company were in use Mr G W Weidler's steamer Bonita was chartered and started down the river at 5 o'clock P M having District Attorney Caples, Mr I W Case, Mr Wesley Jackson and several other persons on board. The steamer reached Astoria some time last night.

On arriving there it is the purpose of the district attorney to proceed without delay against these disturbers of the public peace. Should the strikers resist the authorities then the authority and power of the state will be invoked. It is the full purpose and determination of the officers of the law to maintain order and peace at any cost.

Another dispatch received here states that several hundred of the strikers paraded the streets of Astoria with a brass band. It is said that threats have been made by some of the leaders against property and life unless their demands are acceded to.

Afternoon Proceedings—2d Session

Committee on permanent organization [illegible] as follows: [illegible]

A motion to [illegible] was put by A [illegible] of Clackamas and [illegible]

[illegible] Let me express the [illegible] republican party at heart and that harmony will prevail [illegible] thank you [illegible]

[illegible]

3 Nomination of [illegible] presidential electors.

4 One delegate at large to the republican national [illegible]

[illegible] district nominations including circuit judges, prosecuting attorneys and [illegible] delegates from each judicial district to the national convention to be held at Chicago June [illegible]

[illegible] Election of state central committee. Adopted.

Apperson of Clackamas moved that the convention not proceed with the order of business until the committee on platform had reported and the report acted on. Carried.

A motion to adjourn until 7 P. M. and one to take a recess of 30 minutes were overwhelmingly voted down.

After a few moments tedious waiting the committee on platform made its appearance and its report was read by Handley of Washington.

We your committee to whom was referred the duty of preparing platform and resolutions for the convention [illegible]

The Platform

[illegible]

[illegible] salaries [illegible] they shall receive such compensation as are [illegible]

[illegible] owned [illegible] by citizens of this or of foreign states shall bear its equal proportion of the burden [illegible]

4 That we propose to maintain [illegible] amendments to the constitution of the United States [illegible] that every citizen [illegible] black or white may be secured [illegible]

5 That the overthrow of the rights of the elective franchise [illegible] has been defeated and the manifested fraud and threatened [illegible] the general government [illegible] the interests of the democratic party are attempted revolution and must be met as such. [Applause.]

6 That this is a nation formed by the people thereof and not a mere league or compact and that we reaffirm the idea of the unity of the nation, the supremacy of the national government in all matters placed by the constitution under its control, the preservation intact of all the rights of municipal self government otherwise guaranteed thereby to the people or to the states respectively. At the same time we arraign the doctrine of state sovereignty as the basis of nullification, secession and anarchy. [Applause.]

7 That the recent action of the democratic party in state convention assembled, in denouncing the supreme court of the United States of America and imputing the most unworthy and unpatriotic motives to that high and honorable court is unworthy of law-abiding intelligent and patriotic American citizens [applause] and directly tends to the loosening of the foundation of our government, the subversion of all law and the overthrow of the sanctity of a system of judicature venerable with age and perfected by wisdom. [Applause.]

8. That the attempt by the leaders of the democratic party to defraud the people of the state out of an electoral vote was an outrage unparalleled in the political history of the state which together with the Maine infamy and the attempt to unseat members in the halls of congress for base partisan advantage deserves the condemnation of all fair minded men. [Tremendous applause.]

9 That we condemn the outrageous conduct of our democratic state administrations from 1870 to 1878, their extravagance, their corruption and their peculations.

10 We deprecate the course of members of the democratic party who have undertaken to revive sectional animosity for the purpose of securing political ascendency in the southern states and who have revived memories of sectional strife by the defiant declaration of a purpose to repeal laws made necessary by the war and enacted to secure the results of the war, and we condemn their attempts to secure by legislation what was not accomplished by arms, namely the establishment under the name of state sovereignty of those pernicious doctrines which destroy national supremacy and which in part have led to secession and civil war. [Applause.]

11 That to the republican party is due the credit of successful resumption and restored prosperity and business revival and we insist that the paper and coin circulation of the country shall at all times be maintained at par with the gold standard of the commercial world. [Applause.]

12 That while we are in favor of a revenue for the support of the general government by duties upon imports sound policy requires such adjustment of import duties as to encourage the development of the industrial interests of the whole country, and we commend that policy of national exchange which secures to the working man liberal wages, to agriculture remunerative prices, to mechanics and manufacturers an adequate reward for their skill, labor and enterprise, and to the nation commercial prosperity and independence.

13 That we are in favor of judicious appropriations by the general government for the improvement of our rivers and seaports as well as for the construction of such lines of railway communication as will develop the resources of the country and connect our state with other parts of the union under such restrictions as will amply protect the rights of the people from unjust discrimination and extortionate charges, and that in the grants of lands to railroads we favor the sale of the same by the government to the people at the lowest price for public lands, giving the proceeds only to the corporations.

14. That we demand of our representation in congress their best endeavors to secure just and judicious appropriations and favorable legislation by the general government for the free navigation of the Columbia and the rivers of the state, the improvement of the mouth of the Columbia and the harbors at Yaquina and Coos Bays, the location of a harbor of refuge at the point along our coast most available to the interests of commerce, the extension of the public surveys to meet the wants of our increasing population and aid and assistance to railroads, and the opening up for settlement such of our Indian reservations as the interest of civilization demands and necessitates.

15 That we demand a modification of the treaty with China so as to restrict Chinese immigration to America. [Applause.]

16 That we hold that a well instructed people alone can be perfectly free, and that it is therefore essential that the public schools should be maintained so that every child shall be instructed in the duties of citizenship and the ordinary business vocations of life.

BLAINE RESOLUTION

Your committee further recommend the adoption of the following:

Resolved, That the first choice of the republican party of Oregon for candidate for president of the United States is Hon James G. Blaine of Maine (great applause), and that our delegates to the national republican convention at Chicago are expected to use all honorable efforts to procure his nomination. [Vociferous and long continued applause.]

On motion of McCown of Clackamas, the platform was adopted without a dissenting vote.

Handley moved the adoption of the Blaine resolution. The ayes and nays were called for by several delegates. Richardson of Wasco said: This is an important resolution and we want the ayes and nays just to see how strong we are.

The roll of delegates was called and every one except Dr Chitwood of Jackson voted aye.

The announcement from the chair of the result of the vote gave the delegates and the spectators another opportunity to vent their enthusiasm.

A motion by McPherson to have the delegates to the national convention selected by three delegates from each judicial district, was laid on the table.

A motion to adjourn until 7 o'clock was voted down.

A motion by McCown to vote in all nominations by ballot and one by Willis of Douglas to require a majority of all votes cast to elect were carried.

Lotan, Apperson, Miller and Cooper were appointed tellers.

M. C. GEORGE NOMINATED FOR CONGRESS.

The chair having announced that nominations for congressman were in order David Froman of Linn presented the name of M C George of Multnomah. Wm Barlow of Clackamas presented Hon Rufus Mallory of Multnomah and Warren Cranston of Marion presented Gen W. H. Odell of Marion. The ballot resulted:

George	[illegible]
Mallory	61
Odell	15
	165

Every second man in the delegations and in the audience had been tally sheets and when eighty [illegible] marks (a majority) had been scored opposite the name of Mr George his friends could not suppress their applause. The announcement from the chair of the election was the signal for [illegible] On motion of Mallory the nomination was made unanimous. [illegible] being made for the nominee Mr George advanced [illegible]

Gentlemen of the Convention and Fellow Citizens: Words cannot express my feelings on this occasion and I shall not attempt to express them. I can only return you my heartfelt and sincere thanks. I feel that the friends of my early boyhood had stood by me and that they are standing by me at this time. I hope that the friendship which [illegible] years ago may [illegible] as long as we are above the sod. [illegible] I [illegible] trust [illegible] [illegible] I am a republican. I believe [illegible] party is the [illegible] [illegible] thanks for this distinguished honor. [illegible] [illegible] and wish you God speed in your [illegible] to hurl the democratic party from power in the state and nation. [Applause.]

Convention then adjourned until 7 o'clock.

Evening Session

Convention called to order at 7 P. M. The chairman announced that the business in order was the nomination of three candidates for judges of the supreme court. The following were placed in nomination: Hon R P Boise of Marion, W P Lord, [illegible] W. Fairhill of Wasco, E B Whitten of [illegible], E B Watson of Jackson, J B Waldo of Multnomah and J Kelsay of Benton.

On the first ballot the result was—

J B Waldo	1
R P Boise	86
W P Lord	96
John Kelsay
A Fairhill	4
E B Watson
B Whitten	36

Whole number of votes cast 167; necessary to a choice 84. So J B Waldo and W P Lord were declared duly nominated and the convention proceeded to ballot for a third candidate. The second ballot resulted—

P F W[illegible]	1
[illegible]	57
R P Boise
W Fairhill
B Whitten
Bush

Whole number of votes cast [illegible] B Watson [illegible] nominated.

The convention then proceeded to the nomination of [illegible] presidential electors. The following were placed in nomination: E J Eastham of Clackamas, John J Mallory [illegible], R Curry [illegible], Watson [illegible], B Handley of Washington, J J Spencer of Yamhill, A C Gibbs of Multnomah and E L Applegate of Multnomah.

The first ballot resulted:

George B Curry	1
E L Applegate	9
C B Watson
A C Gibbs
E J Eastham
J J Spencer
J J Mallory
I B Handley	4

Whole number of votes cast 165, necessary to a choice 83, so Messrs Curry and Applegate were declared elected.

The convention then proceeded to ballot for a third candidate for elector. Lowry Watson of Coos, Perry Watson of Multnomah, and James Watson of Benton county having been placed in nomination, the ballot resulted:

	Vote
E J Eastham
I B Handley
C B Watson	48
J J Spencer	10
A C Gibbs	44
Scattering	2

No choice.

W P Keady of Benton withdrew the name of James Watson of Benton in favor of Lowry Watson of Coos.

Richardson of Wasco rose and said that it had been stated that Applegate one of the electors candidates was a federal officer and not eligible for the position.

Applegate was called on for an explanation and responded in a characteristic speech bringing down the house and relieving himself of the charge. The little service that he performed did not amount to office. His explanation was declared satisfactory by the president.

Mr Eastham rose and declined in favor of Watson. A ballot was then taken and resulted:

C B Watson	93
A C Gibbs	65
Handley	1
Blank

Watson was declared elected.

A motion to adjourn was voted down.

The next business in order being the election of a delegate at large N Langell of Jackson nominated John H. Mitchell at the same time submitting the following dispatch from Mr Mitchell:

WASHINGTON, April 18, 1880.

To Hon. Sol Hirsch:—OREGONIAN of 3d inst just received while recommending selection of Blaine delegates, advises against instructions and urges protest by convention against Grant. I agree fully with the suggestion as to Blaine and hope our friends in convention will go further and instruct emphatically for Blaine. He is entitled to the vote of Oregon at Chicago and ought to have it besides the great majority of republicans in Oregon so desire it. He is my decided choice and has had my voluntary pledge of support for months.

I hope however, the convention will not adopt the course suggested by THE OREGONIAN of protesting against Grant or any other possible candidate. It is yet impossible to determine who the Chicago nominee will be of the prominent candidates.

Even Grant is infinitely better in my judgment than Tilden or any other possible democratic candidate and Oregon should not jeopardize her electoral vote though she fail of her choice at Chicago. Let us by every honorable means secure Blaine if we can, but refrain from the unpardonable blunder of destroying our vote in the electoral college should another be nominated.

As I have been misrepresented in certain quarters by interviewers and others, you are at liberty to make this public. JOHN H. MITCHELL.

Eastham of Clackamas, moved to suspend the rules and vote for the candidate by acclamation. The motion prevailed and Mitchell was elected by a large vote.

After some discussion the convention adjourned till 8 o'clock this morning.

Upon assembling this morning the delegates from the various judicial districts will select and present to the convention their candidates for ratification.

After the adjournment of the convention the delegates of the fourth judicial district met in district convention and selected D. C. Ireland, mayor of Astoria and editor of the Astorian as a delegate to the Chicago convention. His name will be presented this morning to the convention for ratification.

HORRIBLE DOUBLE MURDER.

A Man and Wife Butchered with an Ax near Cayuse Station—A Terrible Crime.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

WALLA WALLA, April 21.—Again the people of this country are shocked by the news of another double murder. The Walla Walla Statesman has just received a special dispatch stating that a man and wife, William and Mary Lishan, had been found murdered about four miles southeast of the Umatilla Agency and a mile and a half from Cayuse station, on the slope of the Blue mountains. The victims had pitched their tent and started a little farm on the banks. Lishan was killed in bed from which he had not moved. The woman had evidently prepared to retire, but had not, and from her position it is supposed she had her babe in her arms at the time. An ax was used to do the deed after which the murderers walked out and struck the axe in the fence. Money was evidently not the object of the murderers for all the property was found intact. The babe was found outside the spot where it had laid all night in the snow storm. The wounds are fearful on the man, one gash extending from the center of the forehead to the back, splitting the ear, another directly across the eyes, and a third from over the left eye to the top of the head, all the depth of the axe blade. On the woman's head are four horrible gashes, one on the left temple extending down three inches, one extending from the chin to the forehead, one from a little above the meeting of the eyebrows around the head and below the ear to the back of the neck and one in the back of the neck severing the back bone.

NEED OF A STRONG MAN

We need a strong man in the White House to brace up the constitution to restore to the republican party the power it has lost and to lead it to new victories over its old fields of conquest. In President Hayes we have a man under whom the party badly shattered when he came into office has been steadily recovering its prestige and strength. But his term draws to a close. Another administration so creditable as his would however fully restore the party to the confidence of the country and lay a foundation for indefinite extension of its rulership. Why we still need a strong man in the White House—a man strong like President Hayes because clear in his great office—will appear from a slight review of political history of the past ten years.

When the forty first congress met in its first session in 1869 Grant was president and the republicans had an overwhelming majority in both branches. In the senate there were fifty five republicans to ten democrats though four southern states were not represented which subsequently swelled the republican phalanx to sixty one. The house contained one hundred and fifty nine republicans and seventy two democrats counting the few on both sides not yet admitted to their seats. Every northern state was represented by republican senators only except California, New Jersey and Ohio which had one republican and one democratic senator each. Every represented southern state except Delaware Maryland and Kentucky was represented in the senate by republicans. The republicans controlled the state governments of every southern state save these three. At the end of eight years when the strong man retired from the White House the proud republican majority of 87 in the house which had hailed his triumphant inauguration had not only vanished from the scene but had given place to a large democratic majority in that body which stood in the party rollcall thus Democrats 181, republicans 107 independents 2 a democratic majority of 74. In the senate the republican majority already reduced from fifty to seventeen was dwindling with every senatorial election so that when the senators elect took their seats at the next session the republican majority had wasted away to just two. Meanwhile the republicans had, during Grant's administration, lost control of all the twelve southern states which had laid the tribute of their electoral vote, eight years before at the feet of the conquering hero of the war. Nine of them had been totally snatched away from the republicans—several of these by sheer violence—under the eyes of the strong man and in spite of his bayonets. In the remaining three the republican party lay manacled and helpless under the feet of the triumphant bulldozer, and appealed to the strong man in vain to deliver them. Hayes had barely been elected by one disputed vote, and it required four months to determine whether that vote was lawfully his. From the heights of a power so great and entrenched in such overwhelming popular majorities as to be or seem invincible the republican party, during the eight years of Grant, had declined by slow steps during his first term, by swift steps during his last to the extreme verge of utter ruin. From the day of his second inauguration till he retired from the white house the whole history of the republican party was one of successive defeats and disasters. He found it a strong, vigorous and triumphant majority. He left it a feeble, despondent and demoralized minority. The history does, indeed, indicate the need of a strong man in the white house. Utter wreck had been made of the party and the task was to restore it to the confidence of the people. This arduous undertaking has been to a great extent achieved by a strong man, not strong in the sense in which Grant is conceived to be strong, as the embodiment of physical force and a domineering self-will but strong in uprightness, in clear views of the moral bearings of political and official action and in perception of the right thing to do and a quiet persistence in doing it. Three years of Hayes has washed the republican party of the stains of Grant's administration, has rebuilt it from bottom to dome on the solid foundation of public confidence, has rescued it from the low moral atmosphere which had chilled and benumbed its vitality and has reinvigorated it with the pride of fresh achievements and the courage of restored convictions. This has been done by an administration which the class of politicians who surrounded Grant have called vacillating and weak. The man whom they have agreed to despise is the man whose clear administration has not only made victory for the party possible in this year of the presidential election, but enduring republican ascendency probable, if the leaders are wise enough to profit by the two contrasted lessons that Grant and Hayes have respectively taught them. That lesson is that the strength of our government or of the party which is responsible for its administration, rests not on the personal might or grandeur or popularity of the president, but on the moral support of the best and most disinterested public opinion. The verdict of history will be that in all those elements of strength which are essential to a wise and successful administration Hayes is infinitely a stronger and braver man than Grant. It has been demonstrated that the life of the republican party is not in the shallow and dirty streams of senatorial bounty, but in the public conscience. Hayes has taken away from senators and representatives that control of public patronage which a long course of usurpation seemed to have vested in them, and by resuming the constitutional powers of the executive has struck down that corrupt and corrupting spoils system which had debauched the politics of the country, made no end of disgusting scandals and weighed like an incubus on the republican party. It took a strong man to do this. It was a work for which Grant was not strong enough.

Hayes is not a candidate for re election but the party needs a man in the White House who will be strong in the same way that he has been strong. If we may judge the future by the past, if we take the lamp of experience as a guide it would be entirely safe to forecast that at the end of another term of Grant, should he be made president again there would be so little left of the republican party that it could hardly make a respectable opposition.

THE REPUBLICAN PLATFORM

This document adopted yesterday in convention is a fair statement of the general principles of the republican party. Some deductions from it are possible with which we should not agree. But in general those parts which touch national policy the platform is a strong presentation of the principles on which the republican party is based and which it exists to maintain. This is a nation formed by the people and not a mere league or compact is a declaration which sets forth the national doctrine of the republican party as distinguished from the dogmas of state sovereignty democracy. The difference is simply the difference between national and confederate principles. It is no unimportant distinction to make and will not be so long as there is a party insisting that it is heresy to speak of the United States as a nation. On state affairs the platform contains several useful things [illegible] a resolution which would have been [illegible] the [illegible] that [illegible] the party [illegible] state treasury for the benefit of party leaders and the promotion of their designs. We have [illegible] a proper resolution in relation to salaries of county and state officials and [illegible] calling for revision and equalization [illegible] of taxation. Both are [illegible] of [illegible] improvements from their [illegible]. The platform on the whole is a practical one and [illegible] free from [illegible] as such [illegible] usually are.

MR GEORGE FOR CONGRESS

In presenting M C George for congress the republican convention has done well. Mr George has served four years as a member of the state senate and through this service has become well known throughout the state. He is a man of sound judgment a close student and hard worker a republican from conviction thoroughly earnest and conscientious a fluent speaker has kept aloof from the personal contests of politics and has a spotless reputation. As a candidate he will represent the earnest convictions of the republican party and will carry its whole strength. That he will be elected we have very strong confidence that he should be elected we have no doubt whatever. A young man of active mind and habitual industry who has purposes and represents something will certainly commend himself to the people of the state as against a candidate who is known in official position chiefly for indolence and in politics chiefly as a representative of the ideas of the democratic party as they existed twenty years ago. Mr George will make an able canvass. It is to be regretted that Mr Whiteaker will not return in time to participate as his absence from the state will probably redound to his advantage. We think Mr George will get the whole republican vote of the state and we predict this vote will not be limited altogether by party lines. He has been a resident of Oregon from his infancy is thoroughly acquainted with the people and the wants and resources of the state and will make a most useful member of congress. He has large numbers of warm personal friends throughout the state who will work with earnestness for his success and as he represents no clique faction or scheme in politics or party his candidacy will create no antagonisms. The acclamation and general good will with which his nomination was received are good omens for his election.

It may be worth while for the convention this morning to take note of the fact that the delegates from Oregon are not instructed for Mr Blaine. The declaration simply is that they are expected to use all honorable efforts to procure his nomination. The resolution as originally prepared and adopted read "hereby instructed" which words were stricken out and the word "expected" substituted. A member of the committee of resolutions who now has the original in his possession, which contains the erasure and interlineation informs us and requests us to say that this change was made after the resolution was adopted. Mr Mitchell and his personal followers wish to leave a door open so that they can go over to the support of Grant. In spite of his vehement protestations of his fidelity to Mr Blaine it is known that within a short time he has written letters to Oregon predicting the nomination and election of Grant. His impertinent dispatch to the convention shows an anxiety to keep open his communications with the Grant camp. Thus much for the present. As he has seen fit without provocation or excuse to make an issue with THE OREGONIAN on false ground before the people of the state the matter in due time will receive proper attention.

It is very unfortunate that the convention yesterday did not renominate Judge Boise for the supreme bench. Nor will any person of candor and judgment declare that the judicial ticket would not be improved if Mr Hill's name were on it. We trust however that the judicial ticket will be elected though there evidently was a feeling abroad yesterday that the party does not need the support of any of the large class known as independent republicans.

It was quite unnecessary for Mr Mitchell to telegraph from Washington as he did for the purpose of trying to advance himself by virtual misrepresentation of THE OREGONIAN and his friends here showed their usual lack of judgment in offering the telegram to the convention. In so far as it relates to THE OREGONIAN the telegram and its author will be dealt with hereafter.

It may be doubted whether the republican sentiment of any state is so unanimous for any candidate for the presidency as that of Oregon is for Blaine. The expression in the convention yesterday was given with a unanimity and heartiness exceeding any similar expression ever witnessed in any Oregon convention. And it rightly represents the republican voters of the state.

For judges of the supreme court the republican convention has placed in nomination men of good ability and legal attainments. The recognized necessity of reforming the supreme court assures their election.

Gen Grant was warmly and courteously received by the people of Oregon but they do not want him to be president again. The voice of the republican convention may be more than an intimation of that.

MUNICIPAL LEGISLATION

Regular Meeting for the Consideration of Routine Business

Last evening a regular meeting of the common council was held in the council chamber, His Honor Mayor [illegible] presiding [illegible] after the reading [illegible]

Members present [illegible] Opitz Watson and Wells

[illegible]

From [illegible]

[illegible]

The following communication was read from the city attorney and placed on file

OFFICE OF THE CITY ATTORNEY
[illegible] April 1880

[illegible] have examined [illegible] four blocks in the city of Portland which are commonly known as the plaza blocks or public squares.

[illegible] These blocks were [illegible] original town plat by the town proprietors as public squares that as such they were accepted and treated by the city until this year and that the city has graded them fenced them and planted trees thereon and has kept them up in the present time as public squares or parks In the year 1870 the city purchased from [illegible] W W Chapman and wife who were the owners of the west half of said blocks all their reversionary interest therein The heirs of D H Lownsdale still retain the reversionary interest in the east half of said blocks of which portion he was the donee

After the dedication of [illegible] to public squares and prior to 1870 said town proprietors had sold the adjacent property and large amounts of property rights had been acquired [illegible] which it would be presumed had been acquired with reference to said blocks being dedicated public squares.

Of course so far as the east half of these blocks is concerned there can be no question but that there is no power upon the part of the city to divert that portion from the use to which it was dedicated to wit public squares When property is dedicated for a particular use the donor or his heirs may through a court of equity compel the specific execution of the trust

As to the west half of these blocks a more serious question arises Here the original owner has conveyed to the city all his interest therein and therefore he is estopped from any further claim therein But the rights of property holders which were acquired prior to the final deed in 1870 must be respected

I think it a well settled principle that when an individual purchases property adjacent to such public squares as these which property would be damaged in value by a diversion of the squares from the use to which they were dedicated they have a vested right or interest in such trust which they can enforce in a court of equity The supreme courts of several of the states have held this doctrine

Our own supreme court in the case of Carter & Mason vs The City of Portland 4 Oregon 335 says We are of opinion that if one owning land or having an equitable interest and subsequently acquires title thereto lays out thereon a town and makes and exhibits a plan thereof, with spare ground marked as streets, alleys, public squares or parks, and sells lots with clear reference to the plan or map the purchasers of the lots acquire as appurtenant thereto every easement privilege and advantage which the plan or map represents as part of the town And in support of this portion of the opinion just quoted the court cites a very large number of authorities

These blocks were designated as public squares upon the "Brady map" made in 1850 and which was adopted by the city in 1852 and as to this part again adopted in 186 The most of the lots in this city were sold by this Brady map. The law will protect the rights of such as purchased with reference to said map prior to the date of the purchase of these blocks from Chapman in the advantages which such public squares afford them

I am therefore of opinion that the city cannot use even the west half of said blocks for any other purpose than that of public squares without first obtaining the consent of those who own property in the city which would be damaged by the diversion Respectfully submitted,
J C MORELAND City Attorney

To the Hon the Common Council—GENTLEMEN—It becomes necessary to report to you that the standard measure of length placed on the water table of the north wall of the Parrish brick building at Washington and Front streets has become inaccessible by the city surveyor and his assistants on account of the lessee of the lower floor of the building having dry goods boxes on the sidewalk in front of the water table he claiming the right to the use of two feet of the sidewalk next to the lot line These standard measurements were located with great care and expense by order of the common council many years ago and form the test or standard measurements by which all chains and leveling rods [illegible] by surveyors are regulated and it is necessary to have access to this standard almost every day Hence I lay the matter before you for your consideration Most respectfully

Attention! Attention! Attention!

Is called to the fact that we have just received, per steamer State of California, a LARGE BANKRUPT STOCK, purchased in New York by MR. J FRANKLIN at 50 cents on the dollar, and the way we intend to show you that what we say is so, and not merely bragging, is by giving you a Price List that will astonish you all and if these figures are not the LOWEST in Oregon, we will stand aside and take a back seat. Competition is the life of trade, and there is so much competition in Portland that goods must be sold low to gain trade and owing to the facilities we have in having our own wholesale house in San Francisco at 13 and 20 Battery street, we will again state that our prices cannot be beat.

THURSDAY MORNING, APRIL 22, 1880.

JUDGE PRIM AND THE CANYON ROAD.

PORTLAND, April 21, 1880.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

The subjoined letter was written to Judge Prim in June, 1878, while he was on the bench. The affidavit referred to was one made by four responsible persons at Canyonville, Douglas county, and stated in substance that Gazley had openly said that he had received a letter from Judge Prim advising him that the Canyon toll road was his, and telling him to take it and litigate for it, thereby in effect acting as an attorney in the case although he was on the court which was to try it. That affidavit was published broadcast in the newspapers, and as Prim made no denial, these old and tried and true democrats, Lane, Hamilton, Floed and Baker felt it their duty to ask Judge Prim's authority for a denial of the charge. Prim never replied. Nothing but guilt could cause him to treat those distinguished democrats in that way. Is it at all strange that the Oregon supreme court is in bad odor all over the coast on account of its enormous decisions in favor of the "friends of the court?"

NEMESIS.

ROSEBURG, Or., June 5, 1878.

Hon. P. P. Prim, Jacksonville, Or. DEAR SIR AND FRIEND. We the undersigned ask your pardon in taking a liberty in writing this letter upon so delicate a subject. Our excuse is, we have the highest esteem for you and regard you as an upright judge, a true citizen and an honorable gentleman. Rumor has stated that you are favoring Fink & Gazley in the canyon road contest, and Gazley is the author of the statement, and an affidavit has been published in proof of this. We do not believe the statement made by Gazley to be true and as there has been no denial of it from any source whatever, we are left no proof to offer. We enclose the affidavit referred to. We know this statement is unwarranted and sincerely trust you will authorize us to contradict it. With assurance of the profoundest esteem, we have the honor to remain your friends,

JOSEPH LANE,
J. C. FLOED,
S. HAMILTON,
J. N. BARKER.

IN MEMORIAM.

WHEREAS in view of the loss we the students of Pacific University and Tualatin Academy have sustained by the decease of our friend and schoolmate, Miss Mary H. Marsh, and of the still heavier loss sustained by those who were nearest and dearest to her; therefore be it

Resolved, That it is but a just tribute to the memory of the departed to say that we her schoolmates and friends mourn for a friend and companion who was dear to us all.

Resolved, That although it is with deep sorrow we follow to their last resting place the remains of our dear young friend, still we believe that she will reap the glorious reward of a Christian life, and that therefore it is well with the maiden.

Resolved, That we tender to her bereaved mother, brothers and sisters our heartfelt sympathies in this their great and unexpected affliction.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to her sorrowing mother.

Resolved, That copies of these resolutions be sent for publication to THE OREGONIAN.

HOSTETTER'S
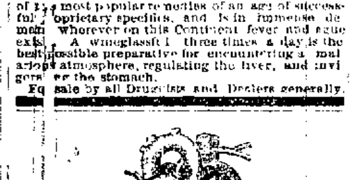
STOMACH
BITTERS

Fever and Ague.

The true antidote to the effects of malaria is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. This medicine is one of the most popular remedies of an age of successful proprietary specifics, and is in immense demand wherever on this Continent fever and ague exist. A wineglassful three times a day is the best possible preparative for encountering a malarious atmosphere, regulating the liver, and invigorating the stomach.

For sale by all Druggists and Dealers generally.



King of the Blood.

Cures all Scrofulous affections and disorders resulting from Impurity of the blood. It is needless to specify all, as the sufferer can usually perceive their cause; but Salt Rheum, Pimples, Ulcers, Tumors, Goitre, Swellings, &c., are the most common, as well as many affections of the Heart, Head, Liver and Stomach.

SCROFULA.

Wonderful Cure of Blindness.

D. RANSOM, SON & CO.: For the benefit of all troubled with Scrofula or Impure Blood in their systems, I hereby recommend King of the Blood. I have been troubled with Scrofula for the past ten years, which so affected my eyes that I was completely blind for six months. I was recommended to try King of the Blood, which has proved a great blessing to me, as it has completely cured me, and I cheerfully recommend it to all troubled as I have been. Yours truly,

The Most Successful Physician on the Pacific Coast.
IN THE TREATMENT OF ALL
CHRONIC AND DIFFICULT DISEASES.

DR. BRENAN WILL GUARANTEE TO CURE any form of disease of the generative organs or private disease.

He has become an expert in the treatment of disease, weakness and derangement of the reproductive organs of both male and female, including diseases caused by the

FOLLIES OF YOUTH,

Such as SPERMATORRHEA, or SEMINAL WEAKNESS, or LOSS OF PERFECT VITALITY. Nearly two-thirds of all the Chronic Diseases spring, either directly or indirectly, from some derangement of the sexual system, and yet this subject is neglected by the majority of the Medical Profession.

I know that persons who are unfortunate enough to be afflicted by any form of sexual disease have a delicacy in calling upon the proper physician in time, from a sense of modesty and sometimes from ignorance, and permit those diseases to exist until their constitutions become corrupted, their organization broken down and the hope of future happiness blighted, until death becomes a welcome messenger to carry them out of their miserable existence.

Everything strictly confidential under all circumstances.

Lost manhood perfectly restored.

Catarrh, Bronchitis, Throat Diseases, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Kidney Complaint and all Diseases of the Eye and Ear, Stomach and Bladder, he can cure without fail.

Consultation free, and a list of printed questions sent to those living at a distance who cannot consult him personally. Enclose postage stamp for the same.

45 Years Before the Public.
THE GENUINE
DR. C. McLANE'S
CELEBRATED
FOR THE CURE OF
Hepatitis, or Liver Complaint,
DYSPEPSIA AND SICK HEADACHE.

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver.

PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side; sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternative with lax; the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged.

AGUE AND FEVER.

DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, IN CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine are productive of the most happy results. No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them a FAIR TRIAL.

For all bilious derangements, and as a simple purgative, they are unequaled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

The genuine are never sugar coated.

Every box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression DR. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS.

The genuine McLANE'S LIVER PILLS bear the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. on the wrappers.

Insist upon having the genuine DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but same pronunciation.
